CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

There should be rejoicing in our hearts this Christmas time for surely the light of peace and good-will in our land is shining brightly. May this light ever become brighter.

In the work of our Church God has graciously blessed us with success and power. Large congregations attend all of the services, many have united with the Church, and the response to every appeal has been most gratifying. May we become even more faithful and obedient to Him.

In our personal and pastoral relations each of you have been considerate, understanding and sympathetic. Your many expressions of love and friendship have overwhelmed me, and your willingness to be of service at all times has inspired me. May these bonds of love and confidence be deepened.

At this Holy Season of our year, when with adoration and praise we bring the gift of our lives to the Manger of Bethlehem it is my earnest prayer that the Father shall bless you with peace and righteousness and crown your lives with Christmas joy and eternal happiness.

With abiding affection, I am,

Sincerely,

W. Angie Smith,

Minister.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Remember the Watch Night service Friday, beginning at 10.30 p. m. We look back over the past year with a thankful heart for the many blessings we have had and the opportunities given us, and we have a right to look forward to the coming New Year with faith and hope that God will be with us. In any undertaking a good start is half the battle. If you are here Friday evening you will hear one of Dr. Chappell's incomparable sermons and be in a position to consecrate your life anew at the very beginning of the New Year.

At the Epworth League tonight at seven some "Christmas Hymns" will be discussed and sung, under the leadership of the League President, T. L. Smith. The recently organized Epworth League Chorus is expected out in full force, and, all things taken together, should make this one of the very best of League meetings. The Epworth League takes this means of extending you a very cordial invitation to attend.

The Epworth League Chorus is growing in numbers and its music is showing marked improvement. Come out tonight at six and practice with them.

* * * * * *

Thursday evening of this week at eight Dr. Chappell will give the fourth of his series of Ten Lessons on What the Bible Teaches About Christ, the subject being "His Holiness." This promises to be a very busy week for most people, but give an hour for this purpose and not miss any of the series.

* * * * * *

It is a well-known fact that a great many people come to Washington with an uncertain tenure of office and leave their Church membership behind or have it in the bottom of their trunk for safe keeping. Most of these people stay indefinitely and for years they are without a Church home, and eventually many of them float out with the tide and are lost to the Church. Unless you are keeping in very close touch with your home Church or are almost sure you will be leaving within the next month or two, send for or get your Church letter, or give your name and address to Dr. Chappell or Mr. Rippy, and they will send for it. You are on the threshold of a New Year when you want more than ever to make your life count, so "sign up" here and then do your level best to capture the Capital City for Christ. You will never find a better field with greater opportunity or where the results will show more. Do it now.

* * * * * *

You were fortunate in securing a seat this morning and you have settled down and are prepared to hear a good sermon—and you will not be disappointed. Many people came this morning and were unable to secure seats, anl large numbers of them have gone downstairs to the overflow service, while some of them have gone home or to other Churches. Since you have a good seat this morning, how about attending the overflow service next Sunday morning and give the fellow who could not get in this morning a chance to secure your seat? The overflow services are a decided success, but it is hard to convince strangers that it is a regular Church service, and if you attend one you will want to attend others. Purpose in your heart now that you are going to encourage Mr. Rippy by attending his service next Sunday and let some one else have your seat upstairs.

* * * * * *

Mrs. Jayne's and Dr. Clark's Classes will meet tomorrow evening instead of Tuesday. This change of date is necessary on account of the Christmas entertainment for the Children of the Washington Orphan Asylum.

* * * * * *

The following new members have been received during the past week: Miss Reubie Burton (Kentucky), 1444 N Street; Miss Alla Clary (Texas), 51 D Street S. E.; Raymond G. Coon (Pennsylvania), 1404 Twelfth Street; Harry Dietzel (New York), 405 Massachusetts Avenue; Misses Zelda R. and Zenobia Fore (Oklahoma), 1336 Eye Street; F. J. Goensch, 1212 Massashusetts Avenue; Claude Hill, 705 Euclid Street; Harry J. Johnson (Virginia), 911 Eye Street; Misses Julia and Martha Keller, 913 New Jersey Avenue; Miss Grace Launbranch (Illinois), 711 Upshur Street; Miss Elizabeth Moorefield, 470 Massachusetts Avenue; C. D. Reeves (Alabama), 939 K Street; Walter Robb (North Carolina), 422 M Street; Miss Laura White (Virginia), 912 Nineteenth Street; Miss Easter Williams (Virginia), 615 New Jersey Avenue.

* * * * * *

Let no soft slumber close my eyes,
Ere I have recollected thrice
The train of actions through the day.
Where have my feet marked out their way?
What have I learnt where'er I've been,
From all I've heard, from all I've seen?
What know I more that's worth the knowing?
What have I done that's worth the doing?
What have I sought that I should shun?
What duties have I left undone,
Or into what new follies run?
These self-inquiries are the road
That leads to virtue and to God.

—From the Greek of Pythagoras.

Make up your minds to be present at every service. There will be only ten of them, not counting the Sunday services. Surely this is not too much to ask of you. And may I ask, further, that you remember the work here (Montreal)? 'A great door is open and there are many adversaries.'

* * * * * * * *

Dr. Chappell will preach again next Sunday morning and night, and we will not then have the opportunity of hearing him again until September. He is going to Europe on a two months' vacation.

The June recital will be given on the last Wednesday of the current month by the Juniors. Many fine vocal and instrumental numbers will be given by the little folks. You are invited to attend. It is surprising to note the number of our boys who are developing their musical talent right here in our own Church. They can play and sing, and are doing it for the cause of the Church. Remember the date, June 27th.

Miss Miller's Social Service Team will hold a service at the Tuberculosis Hospital this afternoon at 3.00 o'clock.

Don't forget the meeting at Central Union Mission Wednesday, June 27, at 8.00 p. m.

Without more help, The Envoy "can't make the grade." Without "gasoline" we can't run it, and it will have to go in the "garage." Unless prompt and hearty response is given our appeal, it must soon go to the junk heap. If you are interested in saving it, let us have one dollar for your subscription for one year—TO-DAY.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School will open July 9, and continue five days each week, till August 3. The daily session will be from 9 till 12 o'clock.

The following courses will be given:

Craft Courses—Basketry, Sewing, Crocheting, Knitting, Carpentry, Board Work, Rug Weaving.

Special Courses—Music, Bible, Worship, Health and Habits.

Picnics, hiking, swimming, and many good times, and a kindergarten for the little folks, insures a good and profitable time for all.

Each pupil can only take one of the craft courses, while every one is absolutely required to take all of the special courses.

The Craft Courses are given to arouse the interest of the child and get them to attend in order to give them the Special Courses. At the same time considering that they have four weeks they can accomplish a great deal in that time.

All of the Special Courses are of the very highest type. The music, under Mr. Shure, can not be surpassed in any school in the country. The children will get training that if they had to pay for it, would cost them $30.00 each, but as it is they get it free. This work is part of our musical program.

The Bible work can not be surpassed in any of the Daily Vacation Bible Schools in this country. The teachers are prepared to teach their respective courses and do not waste any time. The children can learn more in the twenty days spent this way than they can in a year in the Sunday School.

Mrs. Groover, the superintendent, needs help. There is something that you can do. If you have any time that you can devote to the work, be sure and get in touch with Mrs. Groover or Mr. Rippy.

There is no charge for this school. All the instructors are volunteer workers. Advertise the school and help if you can.

Register your children at the Church Office at once, as only a limited number will be received.

If you are paying on current expenses, just put in the regular envelope; if you are paying on the Centenary pledge, mark the top of the envelope "Centenary"; if on your Christian Education pledge, mark it "Education"; if on your recent pledge on the debt on this building, mark it "Building Fund."

The choir will give the last concert for the present year on Wednesday night, May 28th. They have been faithful this past season, and now we are going to show our appreciation by filling the Church for this, their final concert. They will sing the "Creation," one of the greatest oratories ever written, and standing only next in popularity to the "Messiah." A great musical treat is in store for you. Tell your friends, and come.

Come to Senior League this evening and hear the discussion on the subject: Be it resolved, "That one's life is influenced more by friends than by members of the family." Leader, Miss Ethel Shafer. Everyone welcome. 6.45 o'clock.

Those Pedge Cards.

Really just what is the reason you haven't filled out yours and turned it in? The work of the Church costs money. It must suffer if you fail to give it your positive and definite support. Why will you delay? Members of the Board of Stewards, in the performance of the duty the Church imposes upon such officials, must personally solicit your support if you do not respond at once to this appeal. Will you not relieve them of the necessity of calling on you for this purpose? We thought most of you would. Thank you.

Keep the Church Great

"Methodism is world-wide today—yea, more than world-wide; it has reached up to the throne. The principalities and powers in heavenly places learn the manifold wisdom of God through it as much as through any other church in all the earth. It is a great thing. See that you keep it great. Do not belittle it. Do not speak slightingly of your church. It may be a homely church in a lonely situation. It may be out in the woods. It may be a log cabin. But it is the Church of the Living God, no matter where you find it. And it is worthy of your uttermost thought and care, and it ought to be treated with all reverence and regarded as sacred because it is God's. God's hand is upon it. Care for it. Lift it up. Make it honorable among men by its purity and by the integrity of your life and your fidelity to your high profession. And may the blessing of Almighty God rest upon the entire church in all its parts, in all places, until the day shall come when He shall assemble us all before Himself and speak to us one by one."—From last message of Bishop A. W. Wilson, General Conference, Oklahoma City, Okla., 1914.

Because of Mr. McKee's absence, there will be no service of the Junior Congregation today.

We will have two very able substitutes in the pulpit today, while Dr. Lambeth is away at Conference. Dr. Bulla, who is to preach for us this morning, is very pleasantly remembered by the older members of the congregation as having received the call to the ministry while attending the old Mt. Vernon Place Church. Dr. John Reid Shannon, who will preach at the 8 o'clock service, was formerly the pastor at Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church of this city and is well remembered by his splendid work there. We are blessed by having these two great preachers with us today.

If the weather prevents the use of Temple Heights, the service will be held in the Church of the Covenant, 18th and N Streets.

Next Sunday evening the choir will sing "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois. This is one of the most modern and thrilling of all Easter oratorios.

The Finance Committee are hoping and asking for a very generous collection today in order that we may start the new Conference year with all current obligations paid to date. It would be fine if we could start the year with everything paid a month in advance. Double your offering today, everybody, and we will get such a good start that we will be able to make all grades during the summer in "high."

The pennies you have in that Mite Box for the Home of the Aged are needed now. Will you not turn them in? How about a contribution of linens for the Home?

* * * * * * * *

Our pastors are in attendance upon the Annual Conference, which is now in session at Winchester, Va., and they have taken with them the best report that has ever gone out from this church. Dr. Lambeth will report all obligations paid in full, and during this year 578 additions to the church, 202 by profession of faith and 376 by certificate and reconsecration. This is convincing evidence of the kind of service being rendered by our pastors, and is worthy of our very heartiest commendation and cooperation. They have wrought well and achieved marvelous success. Have we done our full share to help and encourage them in the great work that lies before us?

President and Mrs. Coolidge were invited to attend the dedication service on last Sunday morning, and signified their intention to be present, but owing to the death of the President's father they were unable to do so. The congrgation requested Bishop Candler to convey to the President their deepest sympathy, and prayer was offered that he be given strength to bear the sorrow that has come upon him.

The great woman's meeting for Law Enforcement will be held in the Washington Hotel, from the 11th to the 13th of April. Many great speakers will address the gathering and it is hoped that some of the ladies of this congregation will be able to be in constant attendance. Surely every woman of this church will measure up to her privileges and stand squarely for the enforcement of the laws of our country. If interested, see Mrs. Groover in regard to registration.

Are you a contributing member of the Washington Federation of Churches? If so, you have likely recently received a copy of an interesting bulletin which shows the work of the Federation during the past year. If you are not a contributing member of the Federation, you can, by becoming a member, help to unify and solidify Protestantism in the capital city and make possible certain forms of Christian service, like the work done by the worker at the Juvenile Court, that would hardly otherwise be undertaken. The Reverend W. L. Darby is the Executive Secretary of the Federation, with his office in the Woodward Building.

Just as our young people are going away to college, it would be well for them to read the chapel talk made a number of years ago by Dr. John C. Kilgo, later Bishop Kilgo, to the students of Trinity College, now Duke University: "Do you know how to handle a dollar, young man? Have you learned how sacred a dollar is? Perhaps you think of it as a round piece of silver or gold or a piece of paper with strange marks which the government has put upon it. It is so peculiar in its form that any person can recognize it. Certainly everybody knows a dollar. It has power in the world of trade, it is in fact the one master in the market. All these things are true; but if they constitute all you have learned about a dollar, then you have much yet to learn. Your teacher in economy will widen your views on the meaning of a dollar and show what qualities it must have and what wide duties it must perform, but with all he will have to say there are other things for you to learn about it. Your father sent you ten, fifteen or twenty dollars, and you felt easy if not indeed arrogant. Where did your father get that money? He did not gather it from a bush or pick it up in the road. Where did he get it? If you are the son of a farmer, or a merchant, or a lawyer, or a doctor, or a preacher, you well know how he came to have it. Behind it are days of toil, fatigue, anxiety, and much sacrifice. The blood of your father and of your mother is in a very true sense on that dollar they sent you. If your father is a farmer, call up the scene of his daily toil on the plantation. You know the rounds of his labors: the early rising, the breakfast before the stars have gone out, the long day in the sun, the dust of the field at noon, and the tired body when night comes on. And in all of this your mother has had oftentimes far more than her share. They dug the money they sent out of their bodies. They bathed it in their perspiration. They baptized it with their self-denial. Not until you learn these things will you know the real sanctity of the money you get from home. I sometimes hear among college students the expression, 'It is like getting money from home.' That means money which cost them not one day of toil, not one moment of care, not one act of denial. Are these things to be spoken of lightly? Should not money from home be the finest money, the dearest money, and the hardest money to spend? When you go from this room, take the dollar out of your pocket and look at the tired face of your father and the weary form of your mother on it, and I am sure you will set on it a new value and guard it with a new care."

Is the Methodist preacher who united you and your wife in marriage, or the one who united your father and mother, still living? Is he active in the work now, or has he, because of his age or poor health, been placed on the superannuate list of his conference? If he is on the superannuate list, have you known much about his health or his finances since he had to cease active work? Have you ever thought of the pang which went deep into his heart when he ceased to receive an appointment from his Annual Conference? When that happened to him, he doubtless had to leave the parsonage where he had been living as a pastor. There are only a few scattered homes, owned by the Methodist Church, where a superannuated preacher and his wife may live for the rest of their lives. The great majority of such preachers have a difficulty in finding a place for shelter and rest. Some of the fortunate ones can go to live with their children. Some rent a little place, simple and bare and inexpensive, without the comforts of the parsonage they once lived in. The Methodist Church has a pension fund for the superannuates, but it is a very small fund so far. When the accrued interest comes in each year, and this fund is divided into proportionate parts, the part that each preacher gets is very small. It is pitifully small! It does not furnish many of the necessities of life, not to mention life's other comforts and luxuries. The Methodist Church is now trying to increase the Superannuate Endowment Fund until it amounts, in the Central Office, to ten millions of dollars. If this good work succeeds, then every superannuate will receive, on the average, about $700.00 a year, and every widow of a superannuate about $500. Two years ago Mount Vernon Place Church agreed to raise $10,000 and apply it to this fund. Nearly one-half of this amount has already been paid in. It is hoped that the balance may be secured during October of this year. What a noble service Mount Vernon Place Church will have rendered the superannuated preachers of Methodism when this proposed and promised work has been completed!

On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Embry, the treasurer of Superannuate Endowment, sent a check for $5,350 to the Board of Finance, Security Building, St. Louis, Missouri. Two years ago Mr. Embry sent to this same board checks amounting to $4,650. Consequently, the entire quota of $10,000 at Mount Vernon Place Church has been paid in cash. Dr. Todd has already wired that our success here has thrilled him to the toes! His wire says, however, that six other charges have paid their full quotas since his recent visit to Washington. Therefore Mount Vernon Place Church is the eighteenth, not the twelfth, charge to pay every dollar of its quota. In an effort to get our completed offering to headquarters just as soon as possible, our committee borrowed a little less than $400 from one of the banks. The committee holds subscriptions, however, for this amount of money from the members of our Church. These subscriptions are payable, in the main, within thirty days. A few of them are payable within sixty days, and a few have a longer time to run. The congregation will feel gratified, no doubt, to realize today that our love-gift of $10,000 to the Superannuate Endowment fund is already at work for the aged superannuates of our great denomination. Not a dollar of this fund is ever to be spent. It is to last on and serve forever. Only the interest is to be used in paying modest pensions to the superannuated preachers of Methodism.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

A New Year's Resolution! Will You Try It?

I am resolved that, during the year 1931, I will, to the best of my ability, attend at least four services per week at Mount Vernon Place Church. I will be on time at Sunday School. I will remain for the eleven o'clock service and attend the evening service. I will always, if possible, be at the prayer meeting, Thursday evening, and bring someone with me. I will work faithfully in, at least, one of the other institutions of the church, such as Epworth League or Missionary Society. I will, according "as God hath prospered me," contribute regularly to the budget of the church. I will pray for the prosperity of my church. I will show my gratitude to God by persistently inviting others to the services. I will endeavor to so live day by day that my life will be a constant credit and never a reproach to my church. I will cultivate a spirit of friendship and fellowship; I will boost and not knock; I will work and not criticize. I will do all of this by daily cultivating a consciousness of the presence of Jesus in my soul and practicing the principles of Jesus in my life. So help me God!

Dear member of this church, will you not try the above program for the rest of the month of January? If, at the end of the month, you have found it worth while, try it another month. You may vary it according to your individual circumstances.

God requires only your best. Pray over it!

"While, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Nevermore to meet us here:
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,
But how little, none can know.

"As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind;
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise;
All below is but a dream.

"Thanks for mercies past receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view;
Bless thy word to young and old,
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above."

—John Newton.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Revivals

There was a time when we thought God was confined to certain methods of operation in His manifestation. But He has chosen to disclose Himself through means of revelation understood by the people of the age in which the revelation occurs. At one time men found God through temple symbols, again in baptism, and then through camp-meeting fervor. Recently Religious Education or Christian Culture seems to be in vogue. All of these methods have been honored of God and have made their contribution to human salvation. The manifestation of spiritual power has varied with the emotions peculiar to the individual. The great revival of today is symbolized by the leaven working quietly but surely in the realm of unfolding life. You speak to your neighbor and he speaks to his neighbor and on in the ever outward moving influence. It is seed sowing and the harvest is not only eternal in a heavenly world but is an element of mundane immortality. Let us begin our perpetual revival effort today!

IN MEMORIAM

John Henry Whitson, 931 K Street N. W., February 15, 1931.

Our church has suffered heavy loss in the death of its faithful sexton, "John," who died last Sunday night. He was of the old South and belonged to a class fast disappearing. He was of the kind to whom the Southern man committed the welfare of his family in the days of the war between the States, and there is no record that any man had reason to regret the trust reposed in these faithful Black-men. John took the church as a most sacred trust and was never unfaithful to that trust. He had endeared himself to nearly the whole church and is today as sorely missed as almost any one would have been. He lived a good, Christian life, and has fallen asleep in the midst of his duties.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The Easter season is upon us and with it comes the blessed remembrance of the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord and the consequent dawning of hope in the human heart. The greatest tragedy ever enacted in earth or heaven is the tragedy of the Cross. It is the sublimest manifestation of infinite love. It is the supreme exhibition of divine pity and of majestic sacrifice. Mercy becomes the highest reach of our conception of divinity. The tragedy of the Cross staggers the imagination and challenges the highest devotion to Him who was the sacrificial Victim lifted up for the sins of the whole world and exhibiting the eternal love of God. No wonder that in this season all mankind turns toward him. It is no wonder if the angels marvel at the revelation of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Let men and angels join together in the mighty chorus of redemption in Jesus!

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The Easter season is over. It has brought us many precious memories, chief among which is the immemorial Cross and the Broken Tomb. No single act of Jesus constitutes the Atonement, but rather the sum total of what He was and what He did. It was His birth, life, teachings, sufferings, death, resurrection, ascension and His living reality today. All these constitute the Plan of Redemption. May every soul rejoice in these memorials. But these are only incidentally valuable, unless they become today realities in our own experiences. Jesus in history is the most important event in history, but Jesus in our daily lives becomes not merely a historical personage but a living reality in our present consciousness. He was, but He also is, and we know Him and love Him and serve Him and He becomes the dynamic of our daily living. Let not Easter pass as part of the calendar of the ecclesiastical year, but make it a vital truth of our eternal destiny!

IN MEMORIAM

Mt. Vernon Place welcomes to its pulpit this evening, Rev. J. H. Balthis, D. D., our beloved Presiding Elder. Of course, we know he needs no welcome for he is one of the pastors of this church. Dr. Balthis, through four years has endeared himself to us in his unfaltering devotion to the work and welfare of this church as well as all other churches of the Washington District.

* * * * * * * *

The Young People have charge of the opening services at the evening hour, and the Epworth Leagues will have their new officers, for the year, installed. Let the whole church give full cooperation to these fine young people in their work this year.

* * * * * * * *

Strangers are especially welcome in this church. Please make yourself at home. Speak to somebody near you and tell them who you are and from whence you came. Sign the Visitor's Register in the Vestibule.

* * * * * * * *

The envelopes are in the pews for the Gaithersburg Home, which should have been there on Mothers' Day. This is one of the greatest of all our philanthropies. Let everybody make some contribution to this worthy cause.

The Woman's Guild of the Gaithersburg Home is especially anxious to secure new members. Yearly dues are $1.00, which money is spent for repairs and furnishings to the Home. Both men and women are urged to join. Please see Mrs. Charles Koonce, Telephone Metropolitan 1747.

Notices to go in the Bulletin should be sent to the church office not later than noon Wednesday. This is necessary because our printer's office is closed Saturdays during the summer.

A Prayer for Communion

Oh God, our Heavenly Father, we come again this day to Thy Table. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs that fall. But we are Thy children, the work of Thy hand: Thou has made us and thine we are and humbly we come to make our confession to Thee. It is a solemn hour as we approach the Mercy Seat and enter into this Holy Sacrament. Oh God! our need is very great and we are very weak. Have mercy upon us, Oh Lord!

We confess our sins, for which Thou art justly displeased. We despise the evil that made Thee suffer and die. In our weakness and backsliding, we have driven anew the nails into Thy hands and pierced Thy heart afresh. Have mercy upon us, Oh Lord! We have sometimes been unforgiving, but today, kneeling at Thy Table, we forgive every one who has sinned against us. So forgive us, our Heavenly Father! We think not today of our neighbors with their faults, but "It's me, it's me, Oh Lord, standing in need of prayer." We come to Thee with our burdens; with our heart aches; with our sorrows; with all of our joys and with every grief; with our sins and our frailties, and we lay them all upon Thy altar at Thy feet. Look down today, from the ageless Cross and pity us! Stretch out Thine arms of love and call us back to Thee. So may we go forth from this holy place and with the breath of divine incense upon our garments and the glow of the halo of the eternal compassion so shining from our faces that all may take notice of us that we have been with Jesus. Amen.

The Pastor's Message

Christian Optimism

One of the most paradoxical things is the pessimism of so-called Christians. We live in an age of criticism and questionings and men are trying everywhere to denature all that is finest and best in the world about us. Hero-worship is a high principle and involves the question of patriotism, loyalty and reverence. Yet in the last few years an attempt to destroy all of the ideals which we hold for our heroes has been made and none have escaped. Every book falls under the withering criticism of the reading public, most of whom are incapable of applying the standards of criticism to anything. Every man in public life today becomes a common target for any and all. This general custom has penetrated the ranks of the church, and not only does the outside world criticize the house of God and all that it stands for, but it is wounded in the house of its friends. We criticize all of our institutions, our leaders, and each other. Not even the ark of God is sacred, nor the Holy Scriptures, nor the practice of prayer. All of which seems to be itself bitter pessimism, but it is not; it is only an observance of known facts. This world and everything in it is valued according to the way we look at it. One person looks at a rose-bush and observes that it has thorns on it; another one observes that the thorn-bush has roses on it. The church of God with all of its faults and all of its weaknesses is the body of Jesus Christ on earth and is the one institution that holds up standards of righteousness and gives promise of the future, and the church of Christ is composed of Christian members. These form the family of God on earth, and if we could see each other in the proper light, our practices would call forth the same surprised exclamation from the world that it did more than eighteen hundred years ago when they said of the Christians: "Behold, how they love one another." There is good in everybody if we but look at them in the right way. There is the image of the divine in the lowest and worst, if we can but get through the unattractive exterior and discover the jewel in the soul. Is it not our duty to try to find the best in folks rather than to seek for the worst? Certainly this is the privilege of Christians. The one great commandment that Jesus gave was that "Ye love one another." Put on a new pair of spectacles and discover the rosy hues of the morning; the majesty of the noonday and the glory of the sunset. And if you see beauty and glory in nature, how much more shall you be able to see it in the children of God. God has not abdicated, but still reigns; not only in heaven but on this earth, and He will bring victory at last. Let us leave behind us all pessimism and face the east with Christian optimism.

The Pastor's Message

The Pastor and family wish for the power to express to Mount Vernon Place people due appreciation of all the many kindnesses shown during the past few weeks in which tragedy came into the home. Language fails us in a time like this. Friendship is one of the holiest of life's relationships. It usually manifests itself most where need is greatest and where storm and stress come. Mrs. Stokes and all the family feel a sense of unusual nearness to this Church and all who have so beautifully entered into sympathy with us. The many wonderfully beautiful floral offerings; the messages of sympathy; the innumerable things done for our comfort and care; the shoulders placed under the load have not only helped us to bear the burden but have endeared to us a people who were already dear. Our Father knows and we confidently turn our faces toward Him. May His blessing be upon each and all, and His records will contain the names of all and their deeds of kindness.

About thirty-five floral offerings arrived in Atlanta without cards. In due time each one known will be acknowledged and if no acknowledgement is forthcoming, you will know the card was lost. Please let us know. We can never say how deeply grateful we feel and how great is the debt we owe. May the dear Father of us all let fall upon all of you a gracious benediction.

Next Sunday Mr. Shure and the Choir will be back with us. The Quartet has done most acceptable and pleasing work during August with Mrs. H. R. Deal at the organ. We thank them for their fine service and welcome the Choir, Mr. Shure and Miss Gottwals back with us.

* * * * * * *

During September the Choir will give its Tenth Anniversary Program, which will be made up of anthems receiving the largest number of votes from the congregation. Send in your selection to Miss Taylor at once.

* * * * * * *

Those desiring to take private lessons in the Mount Vernon School of Music beginning in September, and those desiring to sing in the Choir the coming season, report to Miss Taylor at the close of the services today or notify the office any time during the week.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference, scheduled for Friday evening, has been postponed. Dr. J. H. Balthis has extended the favor to this church of holding our last Quarterly Conference nearer the close of the Conference year.

* * * * * * *

Next Sunday our Pastor will be back with us, and will preach at both services. This will be our regular Communion Sunday. We have not had the Communion service during July and August. May we prepare our hearts for this holy service next Sunday, by special meditation and prayer, in order that it may be truly a feast for our souls as guests of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The Pastor's Message

Our Conference year is drawing to a close very rapidly. To be exact, there are four more Sundays before Conference. Conference meets in Roanoke, Va., September 30th, at eight-thirty A. M. Mt. Vernon Place Church will have to raise about $10,000 in the next thirty days if we are to report "Everyhing paid in full." This is about the condition we have faced for several years, for the last month of the Conference year. For the great work of the Kingdom of God in our Mission fields and our work at home let us each do our very best to raise this amount. This amount is largely for the work of the Church and Kingdom of God outside our local church.

"Though Christ a thousand times
In Bethlehem be born,
If He is not born in thee,
Thy soul is still forlorn."

* * * * * * * *

"And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel." Matt. 2:6.

Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea

How beautiful is the name Jesus--Salvation, and Bethlehem--House of Bread! The most glorious beauty in the world is the face of a little baby, and what marvelous grace must have shined forth from the face of the Baby in Bethlehem's manger!

The Star stood over Bethlehem, and out across the fields of the Shepherds swept the choral symphonies of the skies, and Wise Men riding upon swift dromedaries drew near with gifts. On that eventful night, challenging the interest of heaven and earth, in an humble manger lay a Babe. And that Baby gathered in its significance all of childhood and all of humanity and divinity as well. Cradled in that manger was human hope and the potential powers of the universe. God Almighty had come to earth in the person of a human baby lying upon the bosom of a human mother, and in that holy hour, "a light never seen on land or sea" radiating from the throne of God, reflected from the face of the Babe of Bethlehem, pierced the darkness of the world to its remotest corners and left a halo over every baby's head, and a glory in every mother's face.

That day was born in Bethlehem of Judea, love, hope, joy, salvation, and the foundations were laid for civilization, and the Kingdom of God on earth.

May this happy Christmas season be to you as the birth of a new and fuller life, of undying hope, unfaltering faith, and of the love and peace that passeth understanding.

Affectionately your Pastors,

W. A. Shelton

The Pastor's Message

Are you a Christian? This question is frequently asked and the answer is ever varied and sometimes disappointing. To be a Christian is to be as nearly like Christ as it is possible for you to be under the circumstances. To be a real Christian means to have your central interest and affection in Christ. You are in the world, but the world must not be in you. It means this: to love God with all your heart; to love everybody; to love the church so that it stands above all other interests; to love the service of God's house; and to exhibit this love by fidelity to the highest things in life; by unselfishness; industry in the things of the Kingdom; by ability to talk to the Heavenly Father and get an answer; by a zeal for God's Kingdom and by living as far as you can a life above reproach. You cannot be a Christian without the help of Christ. Look unto Him and plunge into service for Him! Read the Bible! Pray! Work!

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

YOUTH

Youth is a garden of beauty and promise in an oasis of the desert. Eden was a garden of youth in the day when the world was young. In such a garden God walks in the twilight of the golden dawn—walks with His children amid fruitfulness and the beautiful flowers of unfolding life. The serpent is also there and the tree of temptation. The father asks "Is the young man safe?" And God calls to His lost children, "Where art thou?" Jesus comes and looks into the face of Youth and loves him, and His great heart goes out to him. He sees beneath the veneer of youthful swagger, the light of hope and faith and courage and daring adventure. He can use him. Age sits down to ponder the possibilities of achievement; Youth plunges into the task and succeeds. Stern manhood meets in solemn assembly and passes resolutions. Youth accomplishes the job nor ever asks how!

America is young and bold. It was but yesterday when a young surveyor tramped the hills of Virginia and nearby states, braving perils of Indians and the hardships of a pioneer world. But when a foreign nation marched across the land, George Washington knew every trail of the whole terrain and he was ready. Youth fought the wars of liberty, founded the infant nation, and guided her destinies till she sat upon the throne of international influence. Youth blazed the way across the trackless forests and bridgeless rivers to found a new empire and plant the Church in every woodland and on every plain. Youth marches up to lift the burden of responsibility from older shoulders. It takes the torch from failing hands, and plunging into the fray, carries on!

The highest ambition of the Church should be to bring its Youth with all of its enthusiasm and surging energy to the full realization of the Kingship of Jesus in their lives that they may realize citizenship in His Kingdom and so bless humanity and glorify God. Hail to Youth! Beloved of Christ, storehouse of potential powers, Conqueror of worlds! All things are yours and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's.

IN MEMORIAM

The second Sunday of this month was the anniversary of the moving of this congregation into this building. Mount Vernon Place Church has had a long and eventful career. Standing here in the midst of the Capital City since before the Civil War, she has had her share in helping to shape the destinies of the Nation. Many noble souls have labored here. Many storm-tossed mariners lost upon life's sea have found haven and refuge in her peaceful harbor. Devout souls have found home and vineyard for comfort and service. Lives have been strengthened and blessed. The hungry have been fed, and the doubting have found faith. Many have knelt at her altars and gone away blest. Within this sanctuary little children have been dedicated to God. Youth has plighted troth to youth, and here also has been sung the requiem of the dead. Such a place becomes to our souls the Holy of Holies. May we today hail those faithful souls who have long worshipped here, and with them pledge to Mount Vernon Place Church sacrifices of our lives dedicated to the service of Him whose House this is.

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The days immediately ahead of us are days of anxiety, perplexity and even despair on the part of some. The uncertainty of vacations, the need of vacations, the loss of time and money, how to spend what little is to be spent profitably, will our jobs be waiting for us if we take a vacation and return—all these are questions aggravating the minds of many at this time. Also, these are days of searching, of challenging. Many are wondering what there is in the way of hope and trustworthiness in the present situation to which we may come with confidence and assurance. These are the days which are freighted with evidences of every sort; that the material things of life have tricked us, disappointed us and left us without even an apology. The complacency and confidence with which we relied upon material things a little while ago are dreams of regret now. Surely we must come to find some goal and some purpose toward which and for which we can spend our human energies with confidence for more trustworthy attainments.

Whatever may be our problems, uncertainties, or difficulties, may we not in these times turn from our only hope, that a spiritual heritage, to anything that might confront us in these trying times. As Christ said, we do not "live by bread alone." The things we come to handle and use and even the things that contact our physical beings are not the things which should determine our attitudes and movements in life. In these days we must come into possession of an unconquerable spirit and spiritual conception of life of a Christlike quality.

The following incident in the life of a great man will be a fine thing for us to meditate upon as we are making the selection of avenues through which we will expend our human lives and energies:

When John Quincy Adams was eighty years of age, he met in the streets of Boston an old friend, who shook his trembling hand and said: "Good morning, and how is John Quincy Adams today?" "Thank you," was the ex-president's answer, "John Quincy Adams himself is well, quite well, I thank you. But the house in which he lives at present is becoming dilapidated. It is tottering upon its foundation. Time and seasons have nearly destroyed it. Its roof is pretty well worn out. Its walls are much shattered, and it trembles with every wind. The old tenement is becoming almost uninhabitable, and I think John Quincy Adams will have to move out of it soon. But he, himself, is quite well, quite well."

"For God hath not given us the spirit of fear: but of power, and of love and of sound mind."

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

One hundred and fifty-seven years ago our fathers wrote into the Constitution of this country, just coming to birth, the fundamental principles of human freedom. The hard necessities of pioneer life left little time for jealous rivalries or wild orgies of debauch, either physical or mental. But when we grew rich and luxury-loving and went touring over the world, we became contaminated with our associations and, as is the custom with the newly rich, we put on airs and set ourselves to follow the ignis fatuus of artificial unrealities until the reflections of our own thinking have well-nigh made us into a nation careless of those tremendous realities conceived and adopted by the founders of this American civilization. The course of our present situation is unreality. We stand upon the threshhold of mob rule. We are threatened with a government of expediency. Truth stands on the first step of the scaffold. Wrong is halfway up to the throne and the hour of human destiny has struck! A call to spiritual contest is imperative! The very sacrifices of God are being mingled with the sacrifices of Satan. The purposes of God themselves may be thwarted by the perversity of man. It is no time for indecision or uncertainty. Let everyone declare himself. "To your tents, O Israel!" But the God who patiently walked with Israel; nurtured the early Church, the light of whose countenance brightened the way for the Reformation, and who led the Wesleys on in a needful time, will not forsake us now. Let every faithful soul look up to Him and face the world's need today, unafraid. May we stand in our lot, unmoved by the clamor of the mob, and dare to do right. So shall God's world be redeemed.

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Frank Stanton, the poet, used to say, "Never trouble trouble 'till trouble troubles you," and a rural philosopher once remarked, "I have had many troubles in my seventy years, the most of which never happened." But there are troubles in this old world that are very real and because this is true we should never borrow imaginary ones. Our problem is to heroically face realities and carry on in spite of them. Religion does not guarantee against trouble but makes you able to carry on in the midst of it. It is the irony of human nature that those most submerged in difficulties usually minimize them and see more clearly needs of others while those whose troubles are, in comparison, infinitesimal are most likely to magnify them and proclaim them from the housetop.

One who loses money cries to heaven against his fate, with greater passion, than one who loses his health and yet all the money in the world is unable to buy one day of health. And forgiveness is hardest when material loss is concerned. We cry against God because our loved ones are taken by a kind Heavenly Father from a world fraught with danger, filled with disease and pain, to Paradise and the mansions of glory, and to His presence and care. We brood over wrongs fancied or real, and forget the kindly ministries of loving hearts all along the journey. You may be jobless, homeless, ill, but you are never friendless. There is a sympathetic brother somewhere and always there is that "Friend that sticketh closer than a brother," but remember that "He that hath friends must show himself friendly."

The world is not all wrong! "God is in His heaven and all's right with the world," and not only so but there still may be "Seven thousand who hath not bowed the knee to Baal! Cheer up! Brother! Sister! "Trust God nor be afraid." The fight is on! Let us be valiant soldiers in a time when the battle rages. Face forward! March! King Jesus leads on! The victory is sure at last!

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The members of Mount Vernon Place Church have heard much about money lately. Human nature is a strange thing. A political campaign goes out for big and little contributions and pushes their claim without embarrassment. The Ball Park charges admission as do the Shows. Every institution seriously undertakes its financing, but when the Church of Christ, which is the most important factor in the community, even from a business standpoint, and which is the arbiter of the eternal issues of life, undertakes to raise the necessary funds to carry on the work of the Kingdom of God, many people are horrified and scandalized because money is mentioned in the sacred precincts.

It was not so in Bible times. The prophets condemned financial neglect and Jesus commended contributions to the Temple.

Paying to the House of God is a grace which no Christian can neglect with impunity. It is in fact a blessed privilege, and a means of eternal investment, as well as a logical principle and a sacred duty. Let us have done with these grumblings about the necessities of the Kingdom, and enter upon the blessedness of hilarious giving. So shall our Father open the windows of Heaven and pour us out a blessing that we shall be unable to contain.

Bishop W. F. McMurry is presiding at the session of the Baltimore Annual Conference at Winchester, Virginia. Several of our people are there. Besides the ministers, Colonel A. R. Brindley and Mr. R. T. Buckingham are there as delegates; Mr. C. M. Stoy is meeting the Board of Finance; Mrs. Buckingham and Miss Sue Duffy are there, and Mrs. Deal. Bishop McMurry was the Secretary of the Board of Church Extension when this Church was built. It is, however, his first time to preside over the Conference. Dr. H. M. Canter, whose father was once Pastor of Mount Vernon Place Church, is the Secretary of the Conference.

* * * * * * *

The Pastor and his family have enjoyed the fellowship of the good people of Mount Vernon Place Church for these two years and appreciate beyond human expression the friendships and favors, love and loyalty, which have been so generously given them.

No people could have been better nor more devoted. The Pastor would like to spend many years as the shepherd of such a flock. Many have been the vicissitudes, the disasters and the sufferings, but in the midst of them all God has been gracious and His people wonderful. The Pastor has been afflicted this year with sinus and throat ailments. The doctors say he will be entirely well within a short time, but advises a change of climate. For this and other reasons he has asked of the Bishop a transfer to another Conference where conditions will be more favorable.

In all our enterprises Reverend H. R. Deal and Mrs. Deal have stood with us and wrought most faithfully as true workmen of God. No Church ever had a more devoted minister than Mr. Deal, nor a truer man. A man of high ideals, with consecrated ability and unswerving from the right, he holds steadily on heaven's highway and his life glows with a splendor that is reflected from the face of his Master. May the riches of the grace of our heavenly Father be upon the Deals.

We regret to leave good, loyal friends, but pray God's richest blessings upon the Church and all of its membership. May the incoming year be one of spiritual prosperity and highest success in every field of endeavor in which the Church engages.

Wherever we go we shall carry with us undimming memories of this people.

THE PASTOR.

Dr. Hutchinson

The new Pastor of Mount Vernon Place Church, Dr. Forney Hutchinson, is one of the best and most popular Pastors in Methodism. He is a preacher of high spiritual and moral vision; eloquent and scholarly. He possesses a charm of personality that endears him to all, and at the same time is a prophet of righteousness with no uncertain sound in his message. High minded and spiritual, he comes with a message of comfort and courage straight from God. He has long been my close personal friend and there is no man who could find a greater welcome in my heart than he. I am sure every member of this Church will love him and follow him as he follows Christ, and his pastorate will be one of glorious victory, and that is my ernest prayer.—W. A. Shelton.

OUR PASTORS

WELCOME, DR. HUTCHINSON!

There isn't a great deal more to be said at this time. A great work lies ahead of you at Mount Vernon Place. It presents at once a challenge and an opportunity. We have faith that you are the man to do it. We pledge you our earnest and prayerful support in the task.

And we take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Dr. Harmon for his service to us in the interim from Dr. Shelton's going to Dr. Hutchinson's coming. The assignment as Acting Pastor in such a case is not an easy one, and we appreciate the sacrifice he has made to be of service to us.

The flowers on the altar today are presented by the Victor Flower Shop in compliment to Dr. Hutchinson.

The second meeting of the Week of Prayer services will be held at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon in Room Ten. Mrs. A. Morrison will have charge of the meeting The third and last meeting of the Week of Prayer service will be held on Thursday night at the regular Prayer Meeting hour in the Sunday School Auditorium. Our Pastor has kindly given this hour. There will be talks on the Home objective of the Week of Prayer funds; a play given about the Foreign objective, and a talk on the life of Miss Esther Case, the late Foreign Secretary of the Woman's Board, and for whom the new building at Ewha College is being named. At this meeting the Blessing Envelopes will be laid on the Altar. All women of the Society, and any women of the congregation who care to attend, are welcome.

It has been the aim each year for every member of the Missionary Society to make some contribution, however small, to the Week of Prayer fund. It is the policy of the Woman's Missionary Council at its Annual Meeting, when apportionments are made, for each institution to set aside the one in the Home and the one in the Foreign field that has the greatest need, and leave this need to be filled by the Week of Prayer money. The MacDonnell School, Houma, Louisiana, which works among unschooled rural sections, and Ewha College, Korea, a Union College, and the only College in Korea for women, are specials this year.

A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

As the membership of Mount Vernon Place Church doubtless already knows, we have at present no Assistant Pastor. It will be necessary, therefore more than ever, that Pastor and people cooperate to get the best results. It has long been my custom to spend the morning hours, except Monday, in my study at home. I will be in my office at the Church practically all day on Mondays, and from one-thirty to two-thirty every day, and at other times by appointment if necessary. Except in emergencies or necessities, I would much prefer not to be called out of my study in the mornings. However, I want it understood that I will be available at any time for those who really need the services of the Pastor.

Hoping and praying that we may have a great year together, I am

Your Pastor,

FORNEY HUTCHINSON.

All members of our Church who have not already signed a pledge card for the new Conference Year are urged to do so immediately. There has been some delay in presenting the financial plan for the year but this is unavoidable. The total budget is considerably less this year due to a decrease in the amount estimated for every department. This action has been taken by the Board of Stewards because of the necessity of curtailing operating expenses and in recognition of the fact that the budget should be commensurate with the anticipated receipts. But please do not decrease your pledge this year if that can possibly be avoided. The budget has been decreased, yet, please do not forget that we need the same or a greater amount than was contributed by each of you last year.

At a meeting of the Board of Stewards Tuesday night, November 22nd, the following budget was adopted for this Conference Year:

5. Light, fuel and removal of ashes		1,800,00
6. Printing bulletin	$600

WHY MAKE A PLEDGE?

Why should I make a pledge to the support of the church? Would it be a good plan to give what I can afford every week without making a pledge? Perhaps I might be able to give more that way. Why should I bind myself with a pledge?

Why make a pledge for house rent? Why not just tell the landlord that you will pay all you can afford? You could not rent a tent that way, could you? You make a definite pledge for your rent; you make a definite pledge for your telephone; you promise a definite amount to the person who works for you, and you should make a definite pledge to the church.

Suppose the things were turned around, and someone offered to pay you for your work "as much as he could afford." You would quickly raise an objection. You would say: "I have my bills to meet. I must know how much is coming in so that I may know how much I can afford to spend."

The church is in exactly the same position.

The church can only promise definite amounts of money to meet its expenses as people pledge definite amounts to its support. When your pledge and all the other pledges are added together, they constitute the income of the church. All the people together who just drop in "what they can afford" to the church offering hardly give enough to pay the light and water bills of the church. If everybody should refuse to pledge, and should put only occasional offerings into the treasury, the financial program of the church would be ruined.

You are a part of the church. You attend its services, use its equipment, and enjoy its fellowship. Your inspiration for successful living comes from the church. Make a pledge to the support of the church, and make that pledge large enough to require sacrifice and love to pay it.

At this time an appropriation of thirty-five dollars was made for repairs at the Home. Tentative plans were made for a Dinner to be given in the near future. Four Churches were represented at this meeting. Annual dues which have not yet been remitted should be given Mrs. C. G. Koonce. The Guild is especially anxious to secure new members, and extends an invitation to join to members and friends of the congregation.

Mr. T. Eugene West, who will act as Soloist and Narrator for Mr. Shure's program on the Thirty-first of this month, has recently returned from the Holy Land where he spent six months in study. The program will be done in the style of the Fifteenth Century Cathedral with unusual lighting effects. On this unique program neither the organist nor the narrator are seen, the music and voice coming to the audience as from across the infinite.

FINANCE NOTES

The continued support of our financial program by many of our members with regularity of payments, weekly and monthly, is greatly appreciated. We are using this method for expressing thanks to all concerned. At the same time may we urge those who have not yet done so to bring their pledges up to date. More than one-third of the Conference Year has passed and we hope those who have not paid at least one-third of their pledges thus far will do so at the earliest convenient date. By so doing you will then materially assist our treasurer in meeting obligations as they come due and at the same time find it easier to pay your pledges in full by the end of the Conference Year.

The following summary of our financial situation is furnished for the benefit of our membership:

LET'S FINISH THE JOB

The week ending today has been set aside as the period within which a final effort will be made to finish pledging our Budget. There are many members of this Church who can make a pledge toward the support of its financial program for the current year who have not yet done so. It is confidently hoped that a large number of additional pledges will be signed today. Plenty of blank cards are available in racks back of pews. If you do not find one ask an usher. No attempt is made at this time to state what amount should be pledged by any individual member. But a pledge, in some amount, is greatly needed and urgently solicited by those who have the immediate responsibility of raising the funds necessary to carry on the work of this great Church. We plead with you to remember your vow to support the Church and its Institutions made when you accepted membership therein.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Church budget for the current year carries an item of $5,000 to be applied to our total indebtedness of approximately $40,000, exclusive of current operating expenses. The Board of Stewards, in agreement with our Pastor, has designated Sunday, July First, as a day set apart especially to raise as much of this item in our budget as possible. We are celebrating this month the Fifteenth Anniversary of the first services held in the new Church building. Surely all will agree that no more fitting thing can be done than to have a large free-will offering as the crowning event of our Anniversary celebration.

We are asking that the amount of your contribution be in addition to your regular pledge which has been made for this Conference Year. This request is made necessary by the fact that the amount pledged by our members to date is not sufficient to cover the budget. Of course we expect those who have not made a definite pledge this year to be as liberal as possible on this occasion.

Perhaps ninety per cent of our members who are employed will receive an increase of five per cent in their basic salaries July First as a result of recently enacted legislation by the Seventy-Third Congress. If those so favored by the Federal Government would give the amount of the increase received for a full month, this particular item in our current budget could be easily paid in full. Let us pull together for the accomplishment of such a laudable objective.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. George L. Emery, Bar Harbor, Maine, June 12, 1934.
Stepfather of Mr. Arthur M. Tabbutt.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This is the last month of the Conference Year. After today only three Sundays remain in which to complete payments on our financial budget. Let us pay our pledges in full at the earliest possible date and wind up the Year's business with everything "Paid In Full." This will greatly cheer the heart of our Pastor and make him feel once again that members of his congregation are supporting in a whole-hearted manner the program outlined at the beginning of the Year, with his approval.

To those who made no pledge at the beginning of this Conference Year we would urge a liberal free-will offering during the present month. The need is great and every dollar will be deeply appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Theodore H. Leith, 3101 Macomb Street, N.W., September 1, 1934.

WELCOME, DR. SMITH!

Every member of this great Church bids you a most sincere and hearty welcome today as you begin your work in our midst. It is sincerely hoped that you may have many years of fruitful service here. We feel that a great work lies ahead for Methodism. It constitutes a challenge but also an opportunity of wonderful significance. We want you to know from the very first service of the new Conference Year that we are behind you one hundred per cent and have faith that you are amply qualified to lead us to even greater accomplishments than heretofore achieved. We pledge you whole-hearted and prayerful support in what we consider a joint enterprise with ever widening opportunities for Christian service. We pray God's richest blessing upon you and your family as you come to live among us.

We have made a fine start toward pledging our budget for the new Conference Year. Three hundred pledges, totalling a little more than $11,000 have been signed. This constitutes approximately one-third of our budget, but we are a long way from the goal and are very anxious to obtain a large number of pledges today. If each one present will sign a pledge card before leaving, it will be unnecessary to call on you during the next few days and present the matter again. Blank pledge cards will be found in the racks on the back of the pews. Your cooperation in this important phase of the Church program is earnestly solicited.

Our special offering on last Sunday to take care of the repairs recently completed on our Church building amounted to nearly $1,500. This is a splendid showing and the Pastor and Committee in charge are deeply grateful for the fine response made by a large number of our members. The cost of the work is slightly in excess of $2,000, however, and we are still short of our goal. It is to be hoped that those members who are in a position to do so and have not yet made a contribution will take care of this very important matter at the earliest possible date.

* * * * * * *

It is the custom of the Woman's Missionary Society of this Church, aided by other members of the Church to send a Christmas box each year to one or more families of preachers. These preachers are members of our own Baltimore Conference who, for one reason or another, find their salaries inadequate. We need clothing of all kinds: man—suit, coat size 40; trousers 40; waist 31 inches; shirts, 15 1-2; hat 7 1-8; woman—house dresses, 40; shoes, 5 1-2; stockings, 9 1-2; underclothing, 38; boy, 19 years—suit, coat size (chest) 35, arm 23, trousers 30 inches; shirts, 14 1-2; shoes 7 1-2; boy—13 years, suit, coat size (chest) 35, arm 23, trousers 28 inches; boy—6 years, overcoat, underclothing, cotton suits, stockings; girl, 7 1-2 years—coat, dresses, stockings.

"THE WORLD'S ENDURING MIRACLE"—Friday, December 21—Sunday, December 23. Because of the wide-spread interest shown in the Pageant, "The World's Enduring Miracle," presented last Christmastime, it will be repeated at Mount Vernon Place Church this year. The Pageant is original and is doubly appropriate for the city of Washington because of the present international unrest. The underlying thought woven through the work is world peace, invoked through brotherly love and maintained through the teachings born of the manger in Bethlehem. The Pageant was written by Miss Maude S. Nuttall and Mr. Shure and will not be released for publication, being reserved solely for our Church at Christmastime. Miss Muriel Shaw, of Singapore, will direct this performance. The Cast follows:

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

There should be rejoicing in our hearts this Christmas time for surely the light of peace and good-will in our land is shining brightly. May this light ever become brighter.

In the work of our Church God has graciously blessed us with success and power. Large congregations attend all of the services, many have united with the Church, and the response to every appeal has been most gratifying. May we become even more faithful and obedient to Him.

In our personal and pastoral relations each of you have been considerate, understanding and sympathetic. Your many expressions of love and friendship have overwhelmed me, and your willingness to be of service at all times has inspired me. May these bonds of love and confidence be deepened.

At this Holy Season of our year, when with adoration and praise we bring the gift of our lives to the Manger of Bethlehem it is my earnest prayer that the Father shall bless you with peace and righteousness and crown your lives with Christmas joy and eternal happiness.

With abiding affection, I am,

Sincerely,

W. Angie Smith,

Minister.

Dr. Smith will speak on "Haggai, the Prophet of Temple Building", at the Prayer Meeting service Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. These are most interesting discussions and large numbers are attending the midweek service.

* * * * * * * *

During the past week Dr. Smith has attended the A. B. Pugh Bible Class Banquet, the Banquet of the Vaughn Class at Calvary Baptist Church; and will speak at the Young Men's Banquet at the Community M. E. Church, South, in Clarendon, Virginia, tomorrow evening. He will also address a large meeting at the Church of the Covenant Tuesday evening, and will attend a most important committee of the Federal Council in New York City Wednesday, preparing for the preaching mission across the nation.

* * * * * * * *

We regret exceedingly the necessity of turning people away from the morning service, but we feel confident that those who are not able to get a seat in the Church will understand that we are doing the very best we possibly can when such large numbers desire to attend the services. Do not let this fact dampen the enthusiasm of any of you, but rather increase your interest in the work of this great Church.

* * * * * * * *

The Washingon Auxiliary of the American Mission to Lepers will meet next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Church School Auditorium. CHOIR CONCERT

The Choir will give a Concert in the main auditorium of the Church on Thursday night, March 14, at 8:00 o'clock. They will sing a program of classic lithurgical literature, devoting the entire evening to the works of F. Melius Christiansen. These anthems are all written for eight parts, and are considered to be the highest type of Church musical literature. As guest artists for the occasion, they will present J. Alden Finckel, Cellist, and Alice Finckel, Pianist. Mr. Finckel is one of the finest composer-cellists in the entire country. Mr. and Mrs. Finckel are engaged for concerts throughout the United States constantly, and we are very fortunate to be able to hear them at Mount Vernon Place. Because of the artistic type of the numbers which the Choir will present, and which Mr. and Mrs. Finckel will play, members of the congregation are urged to invite their friends that we may have a full house for this occasion.

* * * * * * * *

The District Conference will convene three weeks before Easter this year, and for that reason it is necessary for us to pay one-half of our benevolences during this month. By action of the Finance Committee, March 17 has been designated as the date on which we ask everyone to make his payment on pledges up to date, and in advance if possible, so that we can raise not less than $2,000 on that date. Make your plans to assist the Church in this great and important matter.

MOUNT VERNON CHORUS CHOIR CONCERT

An Evening of Music will be presented in the main auditorium of the Church Thursday, March 14, at 8:15 o'clock. The program will consist of a group of anthems by F. Melius Christiansen and a Cello group with Piano accompaniment by J. Alden Finckel and Alice Finckel. These anthems are particularly noteworthy, representing the most classic lithurgical literature in the highest realm of Church music. Our guest artists, Mr. and Mrs. Finckel are well-known through their concerts, given over the country. Mr. Finckel has a wide reputation as composer-cellist. We appreciate the privilege of hearing them on this occasion. Invitations, which may be secured in the foyer, will admit your friends. There is no admission fee; a free-will offering will be taken.

The great annual Missionary Council meeting of the Southern Methodist Church voted in their recent meeting in Little Rock, Arkansas, to hold the meeting in the Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., in 1936. This is one of the greatest gatherings of all Methodism and we are delighted they are to be our guest.

* * * * * * * *

Such large congregations are attending the services the parking of automobiles has become quite an embarrassment. You can help greatly in this matter when you park your car if you will leave a wide space between you and the car immediately in front of yours.

* * * * * * * *

March 17th has been designated as pay-up day on the pledge you made to the Church to support all of its claims. The money received on that day will be used toward the payment of one-half of our benevolences. It is necessary for us to raise $2,000 as we have already paid $500 on this great privilege and responsibility of this Church. Make every possible sacrifice to pay your pledge in full to date, or in advance, so that we will not fail to be able to report one-half in full by the last of the month at the District Conference.

If you are here and have not made your arrangements to join the Church, come down with these so that you may not miss this fine opportunity of giving public expression to your love for God.

We are happy indeed to welcome into our service tonight the Columbia College of Christian Education, with Miss Elsie Wade Stone, President. At the close of the service this evening President Stone will deliver one hundred and five Certificates to those who have completed their work.

* * * * * * *

It is to be hoped that a very large congregation will be present at the service at both the morning and evening hours on June 16th. This is the Sunday nearest the Anniversary date of our entrance into this beautiful Church. Let it be a time of reconsecration of your lives.

* * * * * * * *

The flowers on the Altar last Sunday were placed there by Mrs. Eugene L. Crawford in loving memory of her husband, the Reverend Eugene L. Crawford, D.D.

* * * * * * * *

It is so easy at the time of the offering to merely place a small coin in the plate and feel that you have done your duty. Surely the work of the Church is as helpful as the places of amusement. Many people attend a show and think nothing of spending fifty cents for a ticket. This is something to seriously think about when you make your offering to the work of the Lord.

* * * * * * * *

Summertime has arrived and it is so easy to use this as an excuse to keep us away from the services of the Church. Even though we are out of the city for our vacation, let us not forget our obligations to our Lord. He did not fail us though the weather was hot, and the road was dusty. We are expected to do no less for Him.

ANNIVERSARY
"Pay Up" Day

SUNDAY, JUNE 16

Next Sunday has been selected as the date for services commemorating that day in June, 1919, when we first occupied our new Church Building. It was a great day in the history of Mount Vernon Place Church.

Our Church Building is free of debt—yet to adequately provide for our Church School we bought the building in the rear of the Church, in which are housed the Younger Adult—Senior—and Intermediate Departments.

A portion of the purchase price of the parsonage is also included in this indebtedness. In addition it is necessary to meet the obligations assumed several years ago for current expenses. No money has been borrowed during the last five years for this purpose. We do not intend to borrow any for this year.

PAY YOUR PLEDGE

Under the leadership of the Board of Stewards we are asking the membership of the Church to bring the payment on your pledge up to date, including June 16th. For those who have not made a pledge, though possibly you have made a payment, we are requesting that you make an additional gift for this special purpose.

We have agreed to make a payment at this time of $1,000 on these past obligations. It can be done with no embarrassment to the present program if every member will respond to this urgent appeal.

"A STRONG MAN'S WEAKNESS"

Today is the Sixteenth Anniversary of the first service held in this beautiful Church after its completion. It would be impossible to compute the contribution of this Church to the life of the nation during these years. We are very fortunate in not having any indebtedness upon this building. The Church has a total indebtedness of $36,000 on the adjoining properties just to the rear of the Auditorium, and other indebtedness incurred in past years. In following a long custom it is our purpose to pay at least $1,000 on this indebtedness today. As a member of the Church you are asked to make a contribution toward this most worthy cause. Pay your pledge up in full today.

The Boy Scouts of America are to hold a "Jamboree" in Washington in August, to which they expect about thirty thousand Boy Scouts from all over the United States and some from foreign countries.

Every Scout Troop in the District and surrounding communities has been given a quota to raise towrad the expense of this international gathering. Mount Vernon Place Church sponsors a very fine Troop of Scouts and they have been given an amount of $25.00 to raise for this purpose. Last Tuesday they gave a play in the Church School Auditorium at which time a free-will offering was taken to apply toward their quota. There being but a small attendance, an offering of only $10.00 was received. This leaves $15.00 yet to be raised by our Troop.

Last week's bulletin gave the details of an Imaginary Bazaar the boys are holding throughout the next week. The members of our congregation who are interested are asked to make some contribution of an amount equal to that which they would spend if they attended an actual bazaar. We hope there will be a ready response as we do not want the Troop of our Church to fail to raise the quota assigned. Contributions may be left at the Church Office or given to Philip Pierce, the Scoutmaster.

DR. W. ANGIE SMITH

It is a happy privilege for me as the minister of this Church to report that during this year there has prevailed a spirit of harmony and Christian brotherhood of the very highest type I have ever known. I have had the cooperation of the official members of the Church in a most beautiful and sacrificial manner and no request for the forward movement of the Kingdom of God has been denied. Three hundred people have already united with the Church during this year, with a total net increase in membership of two hundred. Glory and honor is not due to any one individual but in a spirit of humility I express gratitude to God and give all the honor and glory to Him. During this week I will represent you at the Annual Conference meeting in Staunton, Virginia, October Ninth, and take great pleasure in making the unusually fine report that you have made possible during this year. To God and you belongs the credit for the results that have been achieved. May God's richest blessings abide upon the labors of this Church during the coming year.

The Younger Adults will have as their speaker at the evening service at 7:00 o'clock in the K Street house, Mrs. George D. White. Under the Leadership of the newly elected officers, with Walter A. Graham as president, intensive plans have been made for the various activities of the coming year. All younger adults, visitors, or otherwise, are cordially invited to attend.

* * * *

The midweek Prayer Meeting service will be held in the Church School Auditorium, Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

* * * *

Next Sunday in the absence of Dr. Smith, Bishop Warren A. Candler of Atlanta, Georgia, will preach at both the morning and evening hours. Bishop Candler needs no introduction to the membership of this congregation, having been your Bishop many years, and also making a very great contribution to the building of this beautiful Church. It is to be hoped that the entire membership will be present to hear him.

PAY YOUR PLEDGE TODAY

At the close of the service you will find in the foyer of the Church your envelopes for the new Conference Year. If you will stop as you leave the Church after the service your envelopes will be given to you, and thus save the Church a considerable sum of money in postage. Those which are not taken today will have to be mailed to the membership of the Church during this week so you can begin your payments in in the new Conference Year with next Sunday's service.

* * * *

To close the year in full with all obligations met, it will be necessary for every pledge to be paid in full, and those who have not made a pledge can give their contribution at today's services. Those of us who have paid in full must again make a contribution of love and sacrifice for the extension of the Kingdom of God. Do not delay this important matter longer than NOW because the money must be sent to the treasurer of the Conference so that the report can be made in full. "Final Offering" envelopes will be found in the pew racks. These are sacred obligations and cannot be overlooked.

* * * *

I wish to express my appreciation to the very large number of loyal members of this Church who have been working during this past week, and are continuing to work through your cooperation for the soliciting of payment of pledges and additional gifts to meet every obligation at once.

W. ANGIE SMITH.
